

BIZBASH

Tints the Season

Here are 48 ideas for decor, catering, entertainment, and more across the spectrum of three distinct color schemes.

Much like interior design, a simple swatch of fabric or a pretty paint chip can inspire an entire party concept. From shimmering silvers and glittery golds to rustic greens and berry reds to brilliant blues and rich purples, we've gathered these distinct event looks based on three holiday palettes—seasonally appropriate greenery, bright and bold colors, and shiny metallics—to help inspire creativity and spark seasonal reverie.

By MICHELE LAUFIX
Illustration by CORNELIA STILES

Metallic

Gold, silvers, bronzes, and pewters combine to create a subtle, yet striking, color scheme.

3

s Top

3

Left: At his restaurant Tavern62 (tavern62.com) on New York's Upper East Side, chef David Burke's Apple Cider Doughnut "Tower" with Apple Cappuccino looks like a stack of edible gifts.

Inset: Burke serves up a Pecan Tart with Moonshine Caramel for the holidays.